THE PRESIDENT'S TOUR HAS BEEN ABANDONED

A BATTLE IN ALBANY

Owing to Forbearance of Militia There Were No Serious Casualties.

LARGE CROWD CONGREGATED

Two Thousand Soldiers Now on Duty and More In Readiness A Dramatic Spectacle.

Albany N Y May 1 —So serious is the condition here tonight over the traction company strike that Governor Odell postponed a trip to the state institutions which he had undertaken and returned to the executive mansion Two thousand soldiers are now in the city limits more are coming and 2000 are in readiness to move from Troy when Governor Odell so orders The streets are thronged with excited men and women and the other was a quiet day terminated in bloodshed

A dramatic element was added to the day's feature by the sudden death of Adjutant General Hoffman As long as the traction company does not attempt to move cars or bring in non union men the crowds on the streets remain good natured except for taunting the soldiers and police but the instant an attempt is made to work on the lines or bring non union men in the crowd becomes frenzied and bloodshed results

Citizens saber slashed non union men with broken limbs and bloody faces women and children trampled upon foot soldiers in fluid with flying missiles and leaders in the crowd beaten with muskets were some of the results of the day Mob and militia came to close quarters late this afternoon but by the accident of fortune there was no serious casualties It was the introduction of more non union men to take the places of more striking traction company employes that produced the violence Seventy five non union men reached the union station shortly before 6 o clock and their delivery at the Q all street barn a mile and a half away was made with a dash under cavalry escort with mob resistance in almost every block Frenzied men swarmed through the police lines surged around the fast moving cavalrymen and fought to get at the coward non union men inside the circle of galloping horses

The days of the setting sun gave quiet to busy sabers but the long blades wielded by forbearing hands from descended in serious blows several of the mob were knocked down by cornered cavalrymen but the sword does not yet score a single fatality In the passage through the streets few of the non unionists escaped the flying bricks and stones that were hurled at them but less than a dozen were badly hurt The courage of nearly a dozen of the non union men failed them in the opening out through the crowds and they sprang from the wagons that carried them to mingle with and be lost in the crowd

The ride of the non union men through the city was the dramatic spectacle of the day At 5 o clock the 18th signal corps mounted and armed as cavalrymen formed a hollow square around the non union men who had just arrived at the depot

Five thousand men tagged at their heels and jammed in around them and thousands more crowded into the adjoining streets Fifty policemen formed in a cordon about the waiting wagons and tried to force the crowd back The street was cleared but the wall of humanity on the sidewalks held firm and could not be moved A brown alleyway that runs along the rear side of the union station was selected and in it were driven four flat topped open trucks The crowd recognized them as the same vehicles that had carried the first batch of men to replace strikers and greeted them with groans Suddenly a side door of the station was thrown open and up the alleyway toward the waiting teams marched the non union men Once they were all aboard the drivers brought their teams out into the street the cavalrymen closed in around them and the race was on The police threw themselves across the street in solid phalanx but the crowd roaring its threats against the new men swept over the police and took up the chase Ahead were thousands more and with no fear for either heels of horses or blades of steel they closed in around the cavalrymen Soon there came a volley of bricks and three of the non union men struck from the rear was down and were lost in the crowd

The living column dashed into State street for the run up the hill past the capitol Here the crowd was as dense and desperate as the other and men plunged around galloping horses One rider cut off from the crowd brought his saber down on the face of one of his antagonists and a line of blood marked where it struck

Two blocks up State street a clever military ruse blocked the down town mob Two companies of the Tenth battalion were concealed in Chapel street and when the cavalry escort dashed past they ran across State street and faced the pursuing crowd with fixed bayonets The new line wavered and broke on one flank but in the main the movement was successful

But the non union men were not yet free Smaller crowds had gathered at various points along the route to the barn and they threw stones when the non union men rushed past

There was another wild scene at the barn where thousands more had assembled The infantry repeatedly charged into the crowd substituting butt for bayonett and after much effort a passage was opened for the scurrying cavalcade and it was safe inside the inclosure

Sixteen of the non union men were injured during the ride and many of them arrived weak and scared had to be helped from the wagons Of the 16 injured men only one was sent to the hospital He was wounded in the arm and head and the surgeons say he was shot The strikers say that 15 non union men deserted during the ride and that less than 50 were safely landed in the barn

In a hollow square of infantry protected by lines of pickets that reached into every bleeding street and an outer skirmish line in circular form that encompassed all the traction company wagon was moved out of the barn this afternoon and two hours were spent in repairing trolley wires The heavy force of guardsmen and the stringent of the protective measures seemed to awe the crowd that gathered around the outer skirmish line and there was no desertion The soldiers were jeered and jeered but no one offered them violence The city is quiet at midnight

Both the strikers and railroad people claim that there has been no attempt at arbitration The company says that it will proceed to move cars tomorrow under guard of the soldiers and General Roe in command of the troops says he will assist to the best of his ability with his 2000 troops

Marshall the non union motorman who was shot yesterday died this morning

The Georges Creek company, a Baltimore corporation had invested fully $1,000,000 in the mine, which is one of the best equipped in the Fairmount coal region The mine was only recently put into operation and about 125 men were employed, only 40 of this number under ground Of these 15 were in a portion of the mine that had not been worked for some time and the remainder were working on headings quite a distance away One of the men in the rooms it is alleged, had smuggled a torch into the mine, as torches give a better light than the safety lamps prescribed by the company.

At 9 15 o clock the miner fired a shot and the smoke which was very dense caught fire from the torch and spread to either the gas or dust and the explosion resulted Fortunately the mine did not catch fire to any extent The explosion vented itself through the airshaft and almost demolished the building on the surface in which the fan was located The men on the headings did not know there had been an explosion until notified The air was soon turned in and in a short time the headings were cleared of foul gases and the work of rescuing the unfortunates commenced It was 5 o clock before the work was concluded

MRS. McKINLEY IS VERY ILL

Extreme Weakness Causes Much Apprehension—Return to Washington Will Be Without Stop and as Soon as Mrs. McKinley's Condition Will Permit —Many San Francisco Engagements Have Been Canceled

San Francisco, May 15—Owing to the very serious character of Mrs McKinley's illness the president this morning definitely decided to abandon his contemplated northwestern tour and to return to Washington direct as soon as Mrs McKinley is able to stand the journey

The gravity of Mrs. McKinley's condition had been known to the members of the presidents immediate party for several days but had been concealed in the belief that she would rally as she had so frequently in the past when suffering from one of her periods of depression and with a few days of absolute quiet and rest, be restored to normal condition But her present illness has been attended with entirely new complications which have not yielded to treatment and the president concluded this morning that it was time the public should be apprised of the true situation He was also anxious that the citizens of the cities and towns along the planned route of his return trip who have made such extensive preparations for his visit should receive prompt notification of the circumstances which compelled his decision

The bulletin which Secretary Cortelyou gave to the Associated Press this morning announcing the abandonment of the trip coupled with another anouncement that Mrs McKinley's condition had night was better in some respects but worse in others prepared the way for the bulletins issued two hours later that Dr Henry Gibbons a celebrated physician of San Francisco had been called in consultation with Drs Hirschfelder and Rixey Dr Gibbons has a reputation here for his skill in the treatment of bowel disorders It was the president's own wish that another physician be called in consultation not because he did not have perfect confidence in Drs. Hirschfelder and Rixey but because he desired that nothing that science could do should be left undone He was especially desirous that the diagnosis of the attending physicians should agree.

Ever since Mrs McKinley arrived at the Scott residence she has been desperately ill Her extreme weakness has been the most alarming feature of her condition Her vitality has been at low ebb and she has seldom spoken to those about her The president has been continually at her bedside since their arrival here Sunday night save the few hours Monday afternoon when he left her to go to San Jose and she threw to see spent yesterday in the parade Fortunately Mrs. McKinley slept through his absence on both these occasions

The strain which the president himself has undergone during the past few days has been very great It has been a personal sacrifice for him to carry out his engagements here in order not to disappoint the people, but he has made it unselfishly and nobly And it is still his desire to carry out the prearranged programme in San Francisco to whatever extent he can This morning he thought he would be able to be present at the unveiling of the Dorahue statue and so informed the committee but at the last moment when his escort had already drawn up before the Scott residence Mrs McKinley's condition was such that he decided not to leave And all say except for a brief half hour this afternoon when he yielded to the entreaties of those about him and went out for a drive he has remained steadfastly at her side.

The members of the cabinet reluctantly consented to carry out today's programme at the University of California and at Oakland, but they had no heart to put into the festivities while their chief was grieving at his wife's bedside The visit to Mount Tamalpais arranged for tomorrow has been entirely abandoned but if Mrs. McKinley's condition warrants the president will attend the reception given by the various veteran organizations of this city in the afternoon

Mrs McKinley's illness has cast a shadow over the whole city The people have shown their sympathy in a multitude of ways All day long little groups have been standing across the street opposite the Scott mansion silently watching the drawn blinds of the room in which the first lady of the land lay The news of the serious character of her illness evidently travelled fast because from all over the country this afternoon telegrams have been pouring in to the president asking for tidings of her condition

Just how soon Mrs. McKinley will be able to travel is a question which no one can answer now. It may be necessary for her to remain here longer than next Monday when the party was originally scheduled to leave In deed it is likely that it will be somewhat later before she is able to endure the long trip across the continent But as soon as she is sufficiently strong the trip will be made by the most direct route probably the Union Pacific No stops will be made and it is believed the trip can be made in five days.

San Francisco May 15—At 10 o clock this morning Secretary Cortelyou informed the Associated Press that Mrs McKinley's serious illness compels the president to abandon his proposed visit to other states to which he had looked forward with so much pleasure As soon as Mrs McKinley's health will permit he will return to Washington by the most direct route

Secretary Cortelyou also issued the following bulletin as to Mrs. McKinley's condition

There has been but little change in Mrs McKinley's condition since last night She has gained in several respects and lost in others.

San Francisco May 15—At noon Secretary Cortelyou stated that he could give no additional information about Mrs McKinley beyond the bulletin issued at 10 o clock When informed that it was reported that Mrs McKinley's condition was most critical the secretary said that he could not discuss the matter

San Francisco May 15—At 2 o clock Secretary Cortelyou gave out the following bulletin regarding Mrs McKinley's condition

Dr Henry Gibbons was in consultation with Drs Hirschfelder and Rixey at 12 o clock today They found that Mrs McKinley had lost nothing since the morning bulletin and is more comfortable now than then

San Francisco May 15—At 7 o clock tonight Mrs McKinley was no better She has taken nothing but liquid nourishment for several days and her extreme weakness excites much apprehension The attending physicians are to hold another consultation about 10 o clock The members of the cabinet who were to have attended the entertainment given by the Bohemian club at their rooms The president was to have been tendered in his honor tomorrow night by the Ohio society of California.

San Francisco May 15,—Secretary Cortelyou at 9 o clock tonight gave the following bulletin to the Associated Press

The physicians report an improvement in Mrs. McKinley's condition since noon today

In addition to this Secretary Cortelyou stated that no further bulletins will be issued tonight.

San Francisco May 15 After dinner tonight the members of the cabinet called at the Scott residence They reported Mrs McKinley's condition unchanged When she is conscious she recognizes the president and asks for him She is not regarded as in immediate danger of dissolution There is no abandonment of hope that she will rally, but in her weakened condition there could not fail to be apprehension lest the spark of life might go out

San Francisco May 15—(10 p m)—The members of the cabinet are very apprehensive that Mrs. McKinley will not rally. Her physicians have not yet been able to check the bowel trouble and her enfeebled condition militates against her. But at the Scott residence at this hour it was stated that there was no immediate danger although a change for the worst would not be unexpected After the consultation tonight Dr Rixey and Dr Hirschfelder remained in attendance. Secretary and Mr Hay joined the president tonight

When the members of the Bohemian club learned of the alarming nature of Mrs McKinley's illness the elaborate entertainment that had been planned was abandoned.

San Francisco May 15—At 11 o clock Secretary Cortelyou in reply to a request for a bulletin on Mrs McKinley's condition sent out word that there was nothing new to give out. Her condition was unchanged The house was quiet within.

San Francisco May 15 At 11 p m. Dr Hirschfelder left the Scott residence. At that time Mrs. McKinley was reported to be slightly better A few moments later Dr Rixey, who has been in constant attendance for over 24 hours lay down to get a little rest

OUTLOOK FOR THE BRITISH ARMY IS DISCOURAGING

London May 16—The Pretoria correspondent of the Times in a letter dated April 18 says

In another fortnight the South African winter will have arrived and unless the Boers are prevented from moving north to the bushveldt and hostilities are somehow ended there will be a series of fights and compromising in an unsatisfactory country together with seven months of peace in the two colonies to be broken by a recrudescence of guerrilla operations all over the country when the spring rains enable the enemy to operate on the high veldt.

But this will mean no respite to the troops no moving into winter quarters but only a continuance of the most demoralizing warfare than can be undertaken

The correspondent then describes a strenuous scheme which is on foot to prevent the enemy retiring north into winter quarters but he does not appear to be very sanguine of its success.

The figures of the intelligence bureau he says show that there are between 15,000 and 19,000 burghers available for service although no commando is known to exist larger than 800 men

GALVESTON RELIEF FUND

Statements Regarding the Use of the Contributions Received.

AND GENERAL RELIEF WORK

Allegations In Report of Legislative Committee Denied—Building Committee Defended.

Galveston Texas May 15—Owing to the discussion in the house of representatives of the Texas legislature recently adjourned, in regard to the Galveston relief fund the following statement has been prepared by the Galveston News

The total cash received from all sources at Galveston was $1 243 495 disbursements $1 234 639 leaving a balance of $8 856. Some claims are outstanding against the fund and several suits are pending for adjudication which will about offset the balance Chairman McVitie of the relief committee, reports the expenditure of $132 133 Of this amount $77 783 was for supplies purchased by the committee. The valuation of contributions of groceries provisions etc sent to the committee was placed at $250 000 The relief committee sold $5 124 worth of supplies consisting of perishable goods and disinfectants The state legislature sent a special joint committee to the storm district in March to report on conditions of the people in the district and to investigate the method and manner of distribution of relief The figures presented above were prepared officially by this legislative committee Shortly after the adjournment of the legislature the report of the joint legislative committee was made public Referring to Galveston and the work of the building committee the report says

It seems that a great number of relief houses were placed upon the land of well to do people who were to receive rents from the people occupying them

The committee also incorporated in its report the statement that from $15 000 to $20 000 was appropriated by the relief committee to fill up certain places and districts with sand and that such filling was made to benefit the property of various members of said committee

The statement further says

It is a well known fact to the governor of the state of Texas and to all parties who have give Galveston relief work any consideration that the distribution of the fund sent to Galveston was in the hands of as strong and reliable a set of men as could be mustered anywhere in the state of Texas

The building committee was a subcommittee from the central committee The central committee appropriated from the general fund $450 000 for building homes for deserving poor who lost their homes by the storm and also for repairing dwellings damaged by the storm The building committee began to close up its work on May 1 and its final report is now in course of preparation. Houses to the number of 572 have been constructed ranging in value from $20 to $1 500 apiece The facts in regard to the legislative committee's report are these

In a few cases property owners not only had their homes washed away, but their lots being close to the gulf, were partly washed away and left partially or wholly in the gulf after the storm New residences could not be erected on such lots The building committee gave such sufferers the right to purchase anew or lease a lot. The number of leases was small Where the building committee erected houses on leased lots it was specially stipulated in the contract that the owner of the lot should have no lien on the house erected by the building committee, so if a flood sufferer should be unable to release or purchase his lot, he is at liberty to move his house away

The only way this work could be done effectually was to fill up numerous holes and low places created by the force of the waves during the storm Not one dollar of the relief fund was used in filling any property except the public streets and alleys

STRONG CASE

Mr. Goudy Gave Way to Mr. Waldron Who Made An Impassioned Address.

Special to the Gazette

Denver May 15—After five long weary hours with the court room crowded almost to suffocation and with the marks of the long tedious trial written on his face Attorney Waldron stood before the jury in the Strong case today and pleaded for the defendant, his client

Owing to the fact that Mr. Waldron can not attend court tomorrow Attorney Goudy gave way and allowed the former to make his argument today

Mr Waldron's argument lasting throughout the entire day was practically the culmination of the battle for the defense in this case, and he sought by every means possibly known to man to weave into the minds of the jury a chain of facts that will cause them to vindicate Sam Strong from the charge this suit has brought upon him

Mr Waldron did not stop at the attempt to vindicate Strong but he handled the evidence that has been introduced for the plaintiffs in a manner intended to indicate that back of this suit is one of the most gigantic blackmailing schemes ever perpetrated in Colorado He devoted a large part of the day to denouncing all who are connected in the other side of the case He [illegible] the plaintiffs hired lawyers and cut-throat witnesses [illegible] the line that these men with their millions have undertaken to hound Sam Strong to the penitentiary His treatment of the counsel for the plaintiffs and his treatment of the plaintiffs themselves was something terrible

As the day wore on and he was fast completing the word picture of the conspiracy as he termed it he became more and more excited until after he related the story of the three men in the mine while it was being destroyed, he exclaimed "I tell you gentlemen of the jury that the ends of justice will never be subserved until that entire gang is hanged

At times he became calm and deliberate and during such times he would talk to the jury as though he was talking to a friend During his argument he quoted from Shakspeare, Burns the bible eminent jurists and from dozens of other authors and used his quotations to stamp upon the minds of the jury the point he wished them to remember In his denunciation of the opposing side he used logic, wit sarcasm, ridicule humor and pathos After having completed the denunciation of the evidence and manners of the plaintiffs he used the evidence introduced by the defendant and builded a castle of innocence with Sam Strong within its walls and ended the day's argument with a plea to the jury to render a verdict that would show that his castle was not built in vain After he had completed his argument and court has adjourned [illegible] crowd around him congratulating him on the [illegible] case for the defense in the morning and will be followed by Judge Brady and Judge Allen both for the plaintiffs It is thought that the lawyers for the plaintiffs will make equally as hard a fight as Mr. Waldron

OFFICERS OF MARINES ENGAGED IN ALTERCATION

Manila May 15—An unhappy situation has developed at the headquarters of marines in Cavite. Col Henry C. Cochrane was recently ordered home and Lieut Col Goodrell formerly commander under Col Cochrane at Olongapo was ordered to relieve him When Lieut Col Goodrell arrived to succeed Col Cochrane the two officers had an altercation, which resulted in Lieut. Col Goodrell's denouncing alleged acts of Col Cochrane in connection with the Olongapo command Col. Cochrane reported to Rear Admiral Kempff, that Lieut Col Goodrell was intoxicated and that night he arrested him ostensibly on the authority of Rear Admiral Kempff The latter disclaimed having given such an order and reported the situation to Washington with the result that Lieut. Col Goodrell remains in custody and Lieut. Allen C Kelton has been placed in command at Cavite relieving Col Cochrane All are now awaiting the result of a court of inquiry

Previous to this incident Col Cochrane had imprisoned Major and Assistant Quartermaster Thomas C Prince for alleged disobedience in reference to requisitions but Maj Prince was unanimously vindicated by the court and continues his duties as assistant quartermaster Col. Cochrane also complained of Maj Lincoln T Waller on account of some difficulty with Private Gardner over an alleged disturbance by Gardner of a dinner party at Maj Waller's house Gardner has just been tried and acquitted and this according to Col Cochrane strengthens the allegations against Maj Waller.

Orders have been received from Washington for 150 marines and three light draught ships to proceed northward It is understood that their destination is the Asiatic coast

George F Coleman and R. F. Neuroux are imprisoned in the navy yard are charged with selling 50 000 smuggled American cigarettes which came here on board of the Buffalo An investigation has been instituted As cigarettes form no part of naval supplies the sole charge will be smuggling

Denver, May 15.—The written letter of Joe K. Choate by Mrs. Anetha Ewart last night is the talk of conversation at all the down town resorts during the day. Mrs. Ewart claims that at one time Mr. Choate was trying to get a pardon for her husband through Governor Mr. Choate's letter made public the following statement:

I have been attorney for Mr. Choate in the differences with Mrs. Ewart. I advised him last night to make no statement for publication. I have seen a copy of the publicity which has been given to the matter by the morning papers, and the nature of it leads me to think it may be unpleasant to Mr. Choate, and I, if I made a public statement of the history of the affair, I have been requested by Mr. Choate to do this and therefore state the following facts.

My employment by Mr. Choate arose out of the action brought by Mrs. Ewart against her husband, Dr. Ewart, and Mr. Choate, attorneys. Dr. Ewart delay in June—[illegible] The action was for breach of promise of marriage. Mr. Choate denied any engagement and has never seen Mrs. Ewart. He was greatly annoyed by the charge and averse to any notoriety, and wished me to make settlement for all claims of every sort by Mrs. Ewart, and the settlement was approved by her attorneys.

I believe that Mr. Choate has seen Mrs. Ewart on but two occasions, and has endeavored to see her at all except in my presence.

Last evening about 8 o'clock Mrs. Ewart went to Mr. Choate's residence and demanded that she be paid additional money on account of her old claim. Mr. Choate saw that she was in an excited state of mind and persuaded her to return here a little before 9 o'clock. He told her that I could explain Mrs. Ewart's excitement. After a few moments she drew a revolver quickly from beneath her cape and fired two shots at Mr. Choate. The first one was a little too high to reach the mark, and I threw up his hand before the second was fired, so that it went high. I then took the revolver away from her and the arrest was made shortly after 9 o'clock.

I am unable to give any justifiable reason why Mrs. Ewart made this assault. Mr. Choate's course throughout has been generous and honorable.

Mrs. Ewart has been released on a $500 bond.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

Many Unfounded Rumors Relating to Trouble.

A CONFERENCE IN SPRINGS

Every Effort is Being Made to Adjust Differences Between Union Miners and Portland Owners

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Victor, May 15.—The topic of discussion on the streets and in the hotels and business houses today was the difficulty between the Western Federation of Miners and the management of the Portland property. There were many rumors of strikes and lockouts but the rumors were in no instance based upon facts. There are just two points on which the controversy rests and both of them lead with the union miners employed at the Portland mine. The Western Federation of Miners demands that its representatives be allowed to solicit new members for that organization at the Portland property and that their representative be allowed to hold union meetings on the property to do this—soliciting. The other point is relative to compulsory insurance at the mine. The Portland company charges its men $1 per month for insurance during the 24 hours of each day of the month. The Western Federation of Miners demands that the money receive in full $3 for each days work with nothing taken out for insurance. If the Portland directors at their meeting tonight [illegible] Colorado Springs grant these two demands there will be no trouble. If the directors do not act favorably upon the matter serious trouble will probably be taken at the Western Federation of Miners meeting called for tomorrow evening in this city. These facts were given out today by the secretary of one of the local unions.

The Woods Investment company of this city has raised its subscription to the Fourth of July fund from $500 to $[illegible]. This action has called forth much praise from the community at large. The committees are hard at work arranging a unique feature for the celebration. The committee in charge of the drilling contests announces that prizes amounting to $400 will be offered in its department.

F. W. Tubendale, agent of the Midland Terminal road at this point, has resigned his position and J. C. Fritz has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Douglas Leonard of Colorado Springs was a business visitor in the city today.

Every effort is being made in this city to settle the differences between the Western Federation of Miners and the owners of the Portland mine at Victor. The representatives from the Victor union of the federation came to Colorado Springs yesterday and last night there was a conference here between men and President James Burns and several directors of the Portland mine. While the officers refused absolutely to talk it is understood that no agreement was reached last night and that another meeting will be held today in Mr. Burns office.

The Victor delegates were John Cury, president of the union, John Harper and C. L. Holland. They arrived here during the afternoon and after Mr. Burns returned from Victor last night the conference was held. The officers of the Portland company are reticent as to the results of the meeting, which lasted for over two hours. It is said that more delegates from the miners union will come down from Victor today. Supt. A. Trevarthen of the Portland was present at the conference last night.

The mine owners say there are no serious difficulties to adjust but the trouble they are having in reaching an agreement seems to indicate that there is reluctancy on both sides to making a concession.

There are about 600 men employed in the Portland. Of this number only one half are members of the Western Federation of Miners. The union have [illegible] of [illegible] representatives in the mine to solicit membership among the non-members. This is one of the principal grievances of the union. Another is in reference to the compulsory insurance system. The miners are taxed one dollar a month by the company for the insurance on their lives while they are at work in the mine. The union demands that this be paid by the scale of wages $3 a day without being assessed for insurance. The company pays 5 men on the top far scale, union and non union alike.

Notwithstanding the fact that Frank Burns says there is no serious trouble he did he refused to be seen last night in reference to the conference between the employers and the employed.

New Developments in the Oil Field Situation

SLOT MACHINES MUST GO

Medical Association Closes Its First Annual Convention—Pueblo Wood men to Celebrate

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Pueblo, May 15.—The first of the many contests expected over the filings of oil land in Pueblo county has developed. Suit filed today the Pueblo Oil Wells company filed on 3,120 acres of land in township 21, range 65, and last Monday E. L. Laird in attorney for the company filed an application in the federal land office for a patent. It seems that location certificate on the same property had been filed by two other companies, one of which is represented by E. [illegible]. Yesterday Mr. Glenn offered an application for a patent on the land office but it was not accepted. Mr. Glenn will again make application the morning and will attempt to prove that the Pueblo Oil Wells company filing is invalid on the ground that they did not file the first application for the patent. There will probably be a legal battle over the proposition.

About June 1 an order will be issued requiring all slot machines to be removed from the city. The operators will have until June 10 to comply with the order. This is the first time in many years that there has been an attempt to suppress gambling in this city.

Jack Gamble has been succeeded as superintendent of the East Tennessee at the steel works by J. Grimner late from Pennsylvania. Mr. Gamble has returned to the laboratory. The rail mill and converter at the works have closed down on account of a break in the machinery. The blast furnace is most opportune as the departments could have had to close down anyhow on account of lack of pig iron.

William Shaw, a colored man, was sentenced to six months in the county jail with a fine of $50 and costs by Judge Moore of the district court today after having been found guilty of assault with intent to kill. Shaw took a pot at Joe Young, colored, a few weeks ago, jealousy over a girl being the cause.

Flora Skokos filed suit in the district court today for divorce from John H. Skokos on the ground of extreme cruelty. The defendant was up until a few months ago a drug store proprietor and later a manufacturer of patent medicines and had more or less prominence. He is recently had been arrested in Phoenix, Ariz., for threatening to take her life.

The first annual convention of the Southern Colorado Medical association closed today after a most successful two days session. The day was devoted to reading papers and addresses and the election of officers.

Pueblo will take a prominent part in the grand jubilee of the Woodmen of the World to commemorate the 100th anniversary, which will be celebrated May 19 throughout the country. The city with district comprising 31 camps with an aggregate membership of over 6,000 will hold their celebration at the Mineral palace here and it will be the greatest affair of the kind in the history of the state. A big and attractive parade will probably be one of the features. The three local camps of the Woodmen are making preparations to observe Woodmen memorial day, which will be held Sunday, June 9.

The new fast transcontinental freight which the Missouri Pacific will inaugurate between Pueblo and St. Louis goes into service Monday. It will reduce the time between the two cities to 36 hours and 25 minutes. The first train, known as the Colorado Limited, will leave for St. Louis at 1 p. m. The eastbound train will be known as the St. Louis Limited No. 2. From Pueblo the train goes west to Salt Lake over the Rio Grande. Although the proper will be run from St. Louis to San Francisco going east from Salt Lake [illegible] Gunther's Pass. UP AGAINST THE REAL THING

When a person is suffering from a lingering sickness, one that continues from month to month or year to year, there is something unusually wrong. This being true no common treatment can be expected to cure them. It is not reasonable to suppose that a physician who devotes all of his professional time to the special treatment of obscure seated chronic diseases will become unusually expert in their treatment? This is the reason Dr. Ellison with confidence invites those who suffer from consumption, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, hay fever and chronic diseases to secure his services. Examination free. CORPORAN TO WITHDRAW HIS RESIGNATION

It can now be definitely stated that Alderman F. P. Corporan of the Second ward, who had tendered his resignation to the city clerk, effective today, will withdraw it. The action of Mr. Corporan in this matter is certainly a fine one, and it is hoped that the council will not accept the resignation. It is understood that Mr. Corporan has taken last night's action as a rebuke for his failure to be at the council table at the last meeting, and that he has decided not to resign.

PROF. PEARSON WRITES ON KNEISEL QUARTETTE

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Dear Sir: I am sorry if the members of the city council feel that they have to go to Denver to hear good music, even including the Kneisel quartette. Of all the musical organizations before the public in the United States, I think it safe to say that the Kneisel quartette is the best organized, most artistic and most perfectly balanced chamber music organization in the world. Its ensemble, its phrasing, its tone color, its perfect technique, its intonation, its rhythmic life, its dynamic range, its tone quality, its subtle shading, its perfect balance, its absolute unanimity of purpose, its fearless and spontaneous yet always artistic interpretation, its perfect technique, its perfect tone quality, its perfect intonation

THE PRESIDENT'S SORROW

IN NO PLACE upon the presidential trip will there be more sincere regret at the necessary change in the program than in Colorado Springs. The people of this city have counted upon seeing the president and receiving him not only as the worthy chief of the nation but also as a man for whom we have a great personal admiration and one who has been a winner in carrying out his policies of government to bestow a most important benefit upon our interests.

Nevertheless, at Colorado Springs as elsewhere our first sense of disappointment and loss is lost sight of in the sincere sympathy we feel for the president in his hour of grief.

No man and especially no American can rise so high by virtue of official position or by exceptional ability as to get above the common level of humanity. The tender courtesy and chivalry of our honored president towards his invalid wife have been among the things that have most endeared him to the hearts of the people, and at the present time there will be no thought in any mind but that the one supreme duty of the hour is towards the loving and faithful wife.

It seems a pity that this trip should be interrupted, that the preparations should be for naught, that the expectations of so many people should be disappointed, and that the president should not be able to complete the plans that had been marked out. But this loss and disappointment may be worth while if it serves to bring into prominence and to illustrate before all the world a principle upon which is based much that is best in American civilization: the respect and honor due and paid by American manhood to American womanhood.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS BANK

THE Colorado Springs business community is to be congratulated upon the addition of a new, or rather a greatly enlarged bank, to its institutions.

Messrs. W. P. Bonbright & Co., who have been the promoters of the new bank, now constitute, with the various enterprises under their control and direction, one of the most extensive and generally valuable business organizations of the city.

The Gazette extends congratulations on the successes of the past and best wishes for the future.

A FAILURE OF JUSTICE

THE words in which the presiding judge scored the jury in the Callahan trial at Omaha are sufficient to indicate a failure of justice of the worst kind. The evidence connecting the accused with the crime of kidnaping was so clear as to be undeniable, and a verdict of guilty was required by every consideration of justice.

The intimation is made that the verdict in the Callahan case was due to a belief on the part of the jury that the millionaire ought to have been willing to pay $25,000 to get his son returned to him.

It is difficult to see by what strange perversion of ideas such a theory should find popular acceptance. The prevalence of such a belief constitutes a far graver public danger than the occurrence of an epidemic of kidnaping. It is the poor man rather than the rich man that is chiefly concerned in the maintenance of equal protection to all under the law and equal punishment to every violator of the law. The rich man to a certain extent is able to protect himself while the poor man must rely mainly upon the agent of the law and the power of the state to protect him. The poor man on a jury or at the polls or anywhere else who strikes a blow at law and its impartial enforcement is doing himself and his class the worst possible injury. He is destroying the gain of hundreds of years and throwing the door open to the encroachments of tyranny.

AN UNKNOWN VOLCANO

ACCORDING to the writer on an unsigned article in a recent number of the London Spectator, a tidal wave in the Atlantic and showers of colored dust that have obscured the sky in Mediterranean regions were due to a volcanic eruption either in the ocean or more probably in the center of Africa. It is also the opinion of the same writer that much of the sickness with which the world has been afflicted the present year has been due to the contamination of the air by this same volcanic dust.

Just how much truth there may be in this opinion the Gazette is not prepared to say. It is certain that many people share the thought that there has been an unusual amount of sickness in all parts of the world. If from the presence of sickness we are able to argue back to the existence of a hitherto unknown volcano in central Africa, it would appear that the human race is developing the power of causistry to a degree not previously possessed by them.

The announcement that one of the leading insurance companies of the country may erect an office building in Colorado Springs is a matter of considerable importance. Other cities have gained very materially in this way, while Colorado Springs has so far been neglected very much below its real deserts. If the companies will look into the matter they will learn that an investment of this kind can be made to yield a handsome revenue while affording much more than the ordinary amount of security.

Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii seems to be a good learner. He says that he has nothing to do with the contest between President Dole and the Hawaiian legislature.

SENATOR MCLAURIN'S CRITICS.

THE proposal of Senator McLaurin of South Carolina in regard to the organization of a white Republican party in the south based upon the removal of the negro from active politics has aroused a wide interest in both northern and southern states.

The Literary Digest, which is always prompt to estimate and report upon public feeling in regard to any new question of importance, in its issue for May 4 sets forth in condensed form the opinion of the representative newspapers of the southern states.

Senator McLaurin's position is that the interests of the south are at the present time represented by the Republican rather than by the Democratic platform, and that the negro question aside the south is already Republican in sentiment. On the important questions of expansion, protection, gold standard, ship subsidies and other minor matters Senator McLaurin finds himself to be a Republican, and although elected to the senate as a Democrat he did not hesitate to support the administration by his vote at important crises in the national affairs, upon which action his state legislature twice refused to pass resolutions of condemnation.

The growth of Republican sentiment in the south is well shown by the newspaper criticisms of Senator McLaurin. The Louisville Courier Journal approves of course, for it has taught the same doctrine in its columns for years past.

The Greenville (S. C.) News (Dem.) would also abandon old hates and moth eaten doctrines, and it thinks that the senator's position will make the young men of this state honor him, and their fathers with the interest of their sons at heart support him. The Richmond Times (Ind. Dem.) declares that there is a large element in the Democratic party in the south who are sick and tired of the party yoke, and it believes that if they were left free to vote their sentiments they would undoubtedly act with the Republican party in national elections. The McLaurin movement, it goes on to say, may be the beginning of a great political evolution in the south, may be the beginning of the breaking up of the solid south. The Norfolk Virginian Pilot (Dem.) too thinks if the organization of a Republican party on the lines indicated is consummated, the outlook is for the most violent political upheaval that South Carolina has experienced since the overthrow of the carpet bag regime. Says the Louisville Evening Post (Dem.):

Senator McLaurin says just what the sands of people are thinking and saying all over the south. We want to identify ourselves with every forward movement of the nation, whether it be industrial, commercial or military. The Democratic party as now organized is a reactionary party, has no part in the present and no faith in the future. It is not the party of Jefferson, for it has repudiated or abandoned nearly everything for which Jefferson stood. It advocates every heresy Jefferson combated, and is now looking for a leader more extreme than Bryan and more intractable than Tillman. * * * Senator McLaurin shows that in the south as here at home the so-called Democracy is an obstacle to material and political progress, and this gives a double warrant for a vote against the organization.

A change of some sort must come, declares the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph (Dem.); the south is too intelligent to go on training forever after revolutionary enthusiasts of the far west. The Mobile Register (Dem.) protests against the south being "to demand to banishment forever from the fruits of political victory by the obstinacy of political leaders who live in a fog and indulge in foolish fancies regarding national finances and are continually butting their heads against the substantial interests of the country." The Nashville Banner (Dem.) calls for a rehabilitation of the Democratic party, which will sever it entirely from Populism and the fads and vagaries that have been engrafted to it by the Bryan domination in its councils. The Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union (Dem.) thinks that the southern Democrats have gained in local self government as much as they have lost in national reverses, and it goes on to say:

The south will not rashly risk what she has gained—she will not endanger home rule under any temptation that may be placed before her eyes. But she has here before taken her medicine with closed eyes—anything that was not Republican, Populism, Republican, or a Republican that does not mean the rule of the ignorant and the triumph of the base, and she might be able again to vote as she thought. Prove that Republicanism is not the most dangerous of all public policies to her, and she would not be compelled to maintain other errors only less fatal to her welfare. Let the leaders—stand in—winning and means to have—make her safe, and she can listen to both sides—but not till then.

She will not hate the Republicanism that forbears to ruin her—she may recognize some good in the policies that no longer attack her in the most vulnerable points of her armor. Let the president proceed—he is three years behind time, but he is welcome to a hearing out of the experiment.

An adverse view is taken by the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier (Dem.), which does not think that the prospect of building up a white Republican party in the south is very encouraging, unless the defection among the white voters is far more serious than surface indications show. The fact that the white Republican party will have to depend in a large measure upon the black Republican party, says the News and Courier, does not promise well for its success in its first campaign at least, and if the old Republican guard is to be thrown out the chances are that the new lights will not have the solid support of the party as it is now organized, and without that there will not be much chance of the new organization winning anything more than the few offices which the administration at Washington has to bestow.

The strongest opposition to the proposal comes from the negroes of the north, of which a well written communication published in these columns on Monday last may be taken as an illustration. Along the same line the New York Age (Afro-American) says:

A great many Republican presidents in the past, beginning with the miserable R. B. Hayes, have tried the white party scheme and come to grief. There is plenty of grief for all who shall try it in the future. It does not seem to be the disposition to profit by the solemn warnings of the past. We are ready for it. If the black leaders in the south and the black voters in the north and west do not succeed in putting the life out of it, then we are ignorant on the subject of political harakiri. There is no room in the Republican party for a white Republican party as such.

Such discussion is valuable in itself, and as an indication of the rapid progress we are making in getting away from the issues of the war. As for the negro vote of the south, it is the desire of every, and in fact the only satisfactory settlement of the difficulty is the breaking up of the negro vote and not its suppression by force, fraud or legislation. If politics and religions are nearly equally divided between the two parties, the disturbing force of the negro will be reduced to its minimum.

The millionaires were able to deliver the goods yesterday all right.

THE PASSING OF THE WIND FLOWER

Good-bye, dear little friend, good-bye!
Born but to blow a while and die
Like mortal hope.

Hence did you raise your dainty head
Above the shivering snowbanks of dread
Cold yet deep snow?

Some had we been so of purple gown
Your passing, setting on a tuft of down

When lo! We seek the favorite hill—
Thinking to find you—behold!
And then—alas!

We tread the old path and hark
For greeting from the meadow lark
And hear the wind

Sigh through the pines a chill refrain
We see each hill-top rock again
Each tree we find

Each ground squirrel chatters as of yore
Each lark sings from his grass grown door
To greet the dawn

Each wood and friend lifts up its head
To greet us as our way we tread—
But you are gone

A few dead stems kissed by the wind—
All bathed in dew—

Perchance a shrinking lonely leaf—
All that is left in our grief
To speak of you

And this is life—a flash of light
Then entrance to a long dark night
Oh! why, oh why

Do we take learn to love if they
Unto their loves as soon must say
A sad good-bye?

Our Oriental Eden

(Kansas City Journal.)

Delightfully optimistic but in no less convincing in consequence of that fact were the remarks upon the present and prospective value of our Philippine possessions which were made by General James M. Bell the other day on his return after a long assignment in Luzon. General Bell is far from being an idealist. He is a hard headed conservative regular army officer and military engineer, not inclined to be short to jump at unwarranted conclusions. Hence his statements may be accepted as trustworthy and reasonable. The climate of the Philippines is the finest in the world, he declares. During my stay there of a year and a half there were not half a dozen nights when I did not need under a blanket. It is healthy too. There isn't a case of rheumatism in the islands and malaria is scarce. I don't suppose there were a dozen malaria cases in the four regiments I had in the southern part of the island of Luzon. The climate of the Philippines is abused by many of the persons who have returned from that section to make the people at home believe they have endured great hardships. We never had as low a percentage of sickness in the civil war as we have in the army over there. And as to the timber and mineral wealth of the land has only been hinted at. There are thousands and thousands of acres of primeval forests of hardwood, the general says. They can supply the world with timber. There are large deposits of gold, silver, iron and copper. There is bituminous coal. I bought in Luzon a mine in my district to test it and found it better than the Australian coal.

Another statement by General Bell is interesting in that it is corroborative of a declaration that has frequently made during the last presidential campaign and already has been many times confirmed. He emphatically asserts that the fighting in the islands would have come to an end long before it did had not the insurgents been buoyed up with the assurance that Bryan would be elected and that with his accession to the chief executive chair would come their triumph. McKinley's victory destroyed the last vestige of hope in their breast and there has been little fight in them of the type so familiar in insurgent ranks. Even among the Filipinos as well as every where else Bryanites are discredited prophets.

POWDER

What Happened to the Man Who Found It Out

It occurred to an alchemist one day that it would be a fine thing to take some powder and dried toads, pound them all to a powder and subline them together in an alembic which he carefully lifted and set on the furnace to heat. He poked up the fire and waited and thinking what he would do with all his money if this should turn out to be the powder of revelation that would turn base metals into gold when bang went the alembic and the wind knocked out and the door ripped off its hinges and fell down flat. The alchemist scrambled out from under the ruins of the furnace, shook a red hot coal out of his eyelashes and the ashes off himself and wondered what had struck him. He tried it again and again and each time with the same result, and then it dawned upon him that he had discovered a fair article of blasting powder. Since then all that has been done to his recipe has been to put in a little better article of trade, all say that of willow twigs instead of dried toads.

Little—little the old alchemist dreamed that potency was in that powder of reduction. Long, long it lay. Although it never yet has turned lead into gold by its touch yet when a small wad of it is rammed with the powder into an iron tube, fastened in workmanship and fired thereto it is possible to convert another man's gold into the possession of him that has the iron tube of curious workmanship and not gold only, but all manner of goods and chattels, houses and lands, agreements, easements and hereditaments, yea, men's souls and bodies. Lays down the book for a moment and behold! Behold this powder par excellence, this power of powders has brought about since first the dried toads charred in that alembic. Now back it up down the right of men their feet and exalted them at a degree.—(Harvard Bulletin.)

Second Day's Work of The Superintendents

The second day's session of the State Association of County Superintendents was marked by an increased number of attendants, nearly every county being represented.

In the morning the members formed in a body and visited the city schools. They expressed themselves as pleased with the local schools and the library system.

In the afternoon the pupils of Miss Hovey's class in music opened the ball by giving Miss Emma Hervey, the superintendent of Arapahoe county, a splendid paper on "The Practical Rural County Institute."

It was there might be a monthly institute in every county in the state, divided into departmental sections, with one of the numbers as half-yearly the assistant chairman of the superintendent be secretary for the ensuing year, and the executive committee as well as some member of each department.

Miss Hovey's paper on the monthly county institute included a division into three departments, viz. kindergarten primary, intermediate and grammar. The paper also contained monthly meetings of the district for a month long, paying teachers a salary of $2 a day, and also at times be an excellent thing. Have the thirty minutes in the corps of teachers meet to hear the superintendent's remarks and a lecture on or whatever it may be to direct this time to some extent at a literary talk or lecture, or a discussion of a problem in the school, or a sentimental one, discussing the very last word in schools and books of the coming year. An institute at the beginning of the year, and a review of the course of study at the close of the term.

While I stand for freedom and the development of the teachers in their own individuality and originality, I think many of us are astonished at the utter poverty of information regarding the requirements of the grades by some in the profession, and their utter disinclination to anything but their own sweet will.

It is astonishing but nevertheless true that very disinterested in county institutes are in the quarterly institute, yet listen to an excellent lecture and leave with some more information and a little more enthusiasm than they came, but they should much rather go hunting samples for a limit the latest millinery, for they tell us "We get so little which is of practical value in the schoolroom or which fits the knotty problems in spirit or disciple that has troubled us the past month." And since Arapahoe county has had a very successful institute since January 1 our teachers are unanimous in their assertion of praise for the great help they received.

I have endeavored to tell you about the practical workings of one monthly institute and I feel I need say little more regarding its efficiency. Information is gained through numbers, the wide awake teacher is never to be one who is helpful in labor.

Mrs. Helen Crenfell, state superintendent, thought at the last session of the paper by a thorough discussion which was generally participated in all present.

A very important factor in the school work that receives but little attention at the hand of the reformer is the taxpayer—the man who pays the sinews of war and without whom the public school could not exist. So said G. A. Carpenter of Rico in a discussion on "The Mission of the Public School."

The taxpayer has the same right to demand and receive value for his money invested upon the school that he has that expended upon the public highways.

In order that we may arrive at a conclusion as to what the legitimate sphere of the public school really is, we must look into its short past. In 1860 there were two discordant and jarring elements in the nation, two essentially different types of civilization, each striving for the mastery, the national life, each unable to understand the other. The chief difference in these conflicting sections was the attitude each took toward public education. With the breaking down of the barrier to the public school, and its advancement into the hitherto inaccessible territory, have become a united people. The south are as ready to follow Old Glory in battle and uphold her honor as they were anxious to tear it down.

The solution of the problem in our great cities must be solved by the public school, and in this the kindergarten must be the principal agency. Temperance has of late years been added to the school curriculum, and already the manufacturers of spirituous liquors are trembling for the future of their business. What we need is better equipped and better paid teachers in the grades and in the rural schools. These are the educational institutions of the masses, and from which our national character is derived. We need teachers in these schools who can not only teach physical, intellectually the three R's but who can correlate, through the influence of health, of virtue, patriotism, humanity, patriotism, independence, teachers of strong character, who can inspire in their pupils that love for distant future, we may have a proclamation of emancipation from the thralldom of that fickle tyrant, fashion. Teachers who will press upon the minds of the young that patriotic duty, not alone in following the flag over bloody fields but in living upright every day, citizens that will not be a standing menace to the security and perpetuity of the public institutions. Let the point not be a mere hurrying articles upon the number of the contested happy honors—honors not bestowed by teachers, scholars, parents. We need teachers who can impress on girls with the fact that the Washington's genius of a well ordered home adds more security to our state than a dozen soldiers in the field, or twice that number of women with independent careers, that the most sacred and inalienable right of woman is the right of motherhood, and that a good mother is the true measure of society.

The ethical relations of human life in all its phases should be taught in the school room and not be left to chance.

The will the time is to be faithful in its mission, and the taxpayer the state the government, the people receive full value for every dollar expended.

But these things cannot be while the nation presents to such an extent that any body can teach small children. As before intimated we need the strongest most tactful, resourceful, cool, long teachers in the lower grades and rural schools, and if the immature, poorly equipped person must have a job let it be in the high schools where the harm of their presence will be reduced to a minimum.

Mr. Carpenter's reference to dress reform was made the butt of a humorous argument that occasioned much laughter.

The last legislature is to be complimented quite as much for the laws which they did not pass as for those which they did, said Mrs. Grenfell, state superintendent. Her topic was "Recent School Legislation."

The number of freakish school laws which were brought before the session of the legislature was legion. After many sleepless nights I was greatly rejoiced when the Thirteenth general assembly closed its career.

One of the laws which I am sure we were all pleased to see go into effect is the dollar fee for the renewal, indorsement or issuance of teachers' certificates. From this source it is estimated that a revenue of $1,500 annually will be derived which amount will be divided equally among the thirteen normal districts of the state.

Another law that was passed makes it obligatory that at least two humane lessons be taught every week. This was really a victory for the Humane society. That it is a commendable law is evidenced by the fact that only one bill was introduced to repeal it. The time to inculcate broad ideas of humanity is when the child is young.

The new revenue bill was thoroughly discussed in its relation to school finances. On account of the higher assessment many counties will be, it is probability make a lower levy this year, which it was suggested might be insufficient to carry on the schools already mapped out. The increase of assessment of properties would not be felt until next year and the levy should be the same as in the past until it is definitely ascertained what the tax increase will be in the new levy.

In the evening the session to be held a round table on uniformity of text book school elections in common with general elections, some practical problems which confront the superintendent and other subjects bearing on these topics.

A Spring Medicine?

You need one of course. Most people do at this time of the year. After the heavy meat diet of the winter the blood gets in such a condition that it needs a purifier.

Dr. Scott's Sarsaparilla

is made particularly to purify the blood. It will not cure a dozen and one diseases but it will expel impurities from the blood and it removes pimples and blotches.

Another excellent remedy for spring is Beef, Wine, Iron. It is a tonic and a blood builder. Beef nourishes, wine invigorates, iron makes blood. Pint bottles, 75 cents.

COMMITTEE SLOW TO STOP PLANS

No Word Yet Received Calling Off President's Visit.

NO MEETING HAS BEEN HELD

Press Dispatches Regarded as Conclusive However, and Little Hope That the President Will Come.

It was understood yesterday that the members of the committee which had been arranging for the reception to President McKinley and his party in Colorado Springs on June 6 and practically gave up all hope of entertaining the distinguished guests in this city.

No official word was received by the committee that the visit to Colorado Springs would be abandoned, but the statements given to the Associated Press by the president's private secretary, Mr. Cortelyou, in San Francisco, left little doubt that on account of Mrs. McKinley's illness the party will make a hurried trip from the coast to Washington, not even passing through Colorado Springs.

When the news was received yesterday that the president had decided to abandon all his proposed visits to members of the local reception committee, it did not give up hope. It was thought that the party would pass through Colorado Springs early and might stop here for a rest. The dispatches sent out from San Francisco late last night state, however, that the presidential party will go east by the most direct route, probably over the Union Pacific, not passing through this city.

The reception committee held no meeting as the members have not been officially notified that the visit to Colorado Springs has been abandoned. The arrangements for the reception had all been made, without any expense. It is expected that the committee will receive official notice from Secretary Cortelyou concerning the visit to Colorado Springs.

There was general disappointment when the news was received that the president will not visit Colorado Springs. No doubt the disappointment is greater than if the Y. M. C. A. The president was to have laid the corner stone of the new Y. M. C. A. building on the afternoon of June 6, and as soon as the officers were satisfied that Mr. McKinley will not be here, plans for the laying of the corner stone will be pushed.

HON. J. D. LONG MAY RETURN SOON

Health of Members of His Family Makes Him Anxious

MISS LONG IS BETTER

Condition Saturday and Sunday Not as Good as Usual but is Again Considerably Improved.

Information through the dispatches of the Associated Press yesterday was to the effect that Secretary John D. Long was likely to leave San Francisco at any moment for Colorado Springs on account of the serious condition of his daughter, who is ill at the family home in this city.

It was stated at the residence on Wood avenue last night that Miss Long was considerably worse Saturday and Sunday than for some time past, but that there had been a marked improvement in her condition each day since Saturday, and she was feeling fully as well as she had for a long time. It was said that there was no probability that Secretary Long would have to leave Washington sooner than he had expected on this account.

The dispatch from San Francisco also stated that the little son who accompanied Secretary and Mrs. Long on the trip had been taken ill and was confined to his bed at the Palace hotel. The members of the family in this city had not heard of the illness of the child, but thought it very likely that it is true that he is quite ill, as very serious illness.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

Sanford Dodge and a fairly good company of players presented a dramatization of Dumas' romance, The Three Musketeers, to a good sized audience at Opera house last night. The production was marred by the early part of the evening by poor management of the scenery, but in spite of this it held up Mr. Dodge and his company won favor.

As the dashing swashbuckling hero D'Artagnan, Mr. Dodge was a success. He carried himself well throughout all the squabbles that adventurer gets into and stepped out again as merrily as ever. Mr. Dodge carefully avoided the temptation the part holds out for ranting and was a self contained, cool headed hero. As Constance, beloved by D'Artagnan, Zella Zoe Lerjie was fairly charming and Emil Lefebvre cleverly impersonated the queen.

All the Porthos and Aramis, two of the Musketeers, were ably presented by Paul Gerhardt and Willis Dunlap and Harry Radcliffe.

NEW BANK OPENED FOR BUSINESS YESTERDAY

The new Colorado Springs bank according to the banking business of William P. Bonbright & Co. was opened for business at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The institution occupies handsome new quarters in the Hagerman building at the southeast corner of Kiowa and Tejon streets.

The capital of the Colorado Springs bank is $100,000. A general banking business is transacted. Modern safety deposit vaults afford excellent facilities for customers. A handsomely engraved announcement has been sent to the business friends of the institution.

The opening day's business was far better than the bank officials expected. From the volume of business transacted by them, those who have shown their intention of doing their banking there the success of the institution is already thoroughly established.

BUTTONHOLE INTERVIEWS

Fred B. Abernathy, who has been spending a couple of weeks visiting relatives and friends in Joplin and Chicago, returned to the city yesterday. He says that the woods are full of Colorado Springs people and this fact became strikingly evident when he walked down State street he met Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith and a little later met Frank E. Johnson. He also met Colorado Springs people in Kansas City.

White Dunlap, business manager for the Sheridan Dodge company, in conversation with a Gazette representative at the Antlers yesterday expressed himself as pleased with the business that his company has been doing throughout the eastern country.

We have had no cause to complain, he said. The season is getting late, but we are not experiencing any bad business. We go from here to Denver where we have an engagement which closes our winter season. In a short time we will begin our summer run which will take us through the northern states. We are to have an engagement at Devil's Lake, N. D., in connection with the Chautauqua there and will play in Minneapolis to stay having quite a run at Detroit. Manistee Mich. also comes in for a run in the summer.

I am delighted with the scenic attractions of your place, continued Mr. Dunlap. I thought some of going to the Last all game this afternoon but as I can see baseball in other places where I cannot get Cheyenne Canon and the Garden of the Gods. I choose the latter attractions this afternoon and I am sure that I shall always remember it with pleasure.

Our public concerts this summer will be far better than last year's, said Carl Creen of the Military band yesterday. The first concert will be given some time during the first week in June. The number of musicians has been increased and new instruments have been added to the equipment.

QUICK CATCH

SPRINGS AND PUEBLO POLICE DID FAST WORK

James Johnson Arrested in Pueblo 20 Minutes After Police in This City Were Notified of Theft.

James Johnson, who formerly stole a small stock of jewelry from his father-in-law, boarded a 10:20 train for Arkansas City, Kan., and landed in the Pueblo city jail just an hour and twenty minutes later. As the theft was not reported to the police until 11 o'clock this speaks of quick work by the department.

Johnson is a barber who has been working in a shop on Cucharas street opposite the South park. He probably got into the same sort of trouble the victims of some barber find themselves up against—a bad razor. Anyway he took it into his head that he wanted to raise some money in a hurry. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Sallie Allyn, lives at 42 East Cucharas street and she owns a diamond ring, a gold band ring and a watch, worth $100. Johnson knew this and knew where to find the valuables. He appropriated the jewelry to his own use last night and then decided to disappear. His mother-in-law was on to his scheme and followed the light fingered shaver to the Santa Fe depot. She saw him go on the train at 10:20 and then stayed around the depot lamenting her loss. An hour after the train left she told the depot officials about it and asked them what she had better do.

The Santa Fe people telephoned to Captain Fair at police headquarters and he immediately called up the Pueblo police and told them the case.

Special officer Bloxsome was at the depot when the train pulled in. He found Johnson and persuaded him that Pueblo was a better place than Arkansas City, Kansas. Johnson accompanied the officer to the city jail and confessed that he had his mother-in-law's valuables with him. He had a ticket for the Kansas town and was headed there.

He spent the night as the guest of the Pueblo police and today he will be escorted to this city and will probably be fed at the county's expense pending a hearing on a charge of grand larceny.

Mrs. Allen is a widow of but a few weeks.

ROBBED OF MONEY WHILE SLEEPING

Joseph Morris of 27 S. Wahsatch avenue yesterday reported to the police a robbery and an alleged attempt to burn his house while he and his wife were asleep Tuesday night.

Mr. Morris said burglars entered his house and robbed him of $110 which was in his trousers pocket. When he awoke he discovered his loss and also found evidences of an attempt to burn his house down. The police are investigating.

FIRE IN UTE PASS LATE LAST NIGHT

At a late hour last night a brilliant illumination of the heavens above Ute pass indicated that a fire of considerable proportions was in progress. It was likely to be seen from Colorado Springs and also from Manitou. It was thought further up the pass than anything included within the bounds of Manitou. The Midland railroad operator at Cascade reported that the fire was not at that place and that he could not see any thing of it and it is supposed that it was some summer house in the pass not far above Manitou. Nothing definite could be learned on the matter last night.

ECLIPSE PRODUCTION

The Company Expects to Average 20 Tons Daily When the New Ore House Is Completed---Elkton to Resume Work Next Week

Special to The Gazette.

Cripple Creek, May 15.—The Eclipse Consolidated company expects to average shipments of 20 tons per day as soon as the new ore house is completed. Part of the ore house is now ready and a 20-ton shipment was sent out yesterday. There is sufficient ore in sight to keep the company busy hoisting for a long time to come and the showing improves almost daily.

Long and associates leasing on the [illegible] are averaging about six tons of ore per day. The grade of the ore runs between one and two ounces.

On Galena hill both the Sedan and Fort Pitt (formerly the Sunshine) companies are doing extensive work in proving up the apex of the vein which has been the cause of litigation now in the United States circuit court. While no ore is going out from the Sunshine claim, Leslie Kellum is making a steady production from the Sedan property and has a bin full of screenings and coarse rock ready to go forward.

On block No. 3 of the Little Nell the work of installing the plant of machinery formerly used at block No. 1 of the same property is in progress and Lessees Harcourt and associates expect to have the equipment in running order by the first of next week. Sinking on the vein has resulted in an improved showing of the ore body which seems to be widening out as depth is attained. A little ore is sacked each day.

The Elkton company expects to resume work next week with a full force of men. The water is a few feet below the 500 level and will be kept at that point until the level is bulkheaded and then the sumps will be worked to their full capacity. The new compressor room which the company is erecting is nearly completed and the parts of the 30-drill compressor are arriving. The company expects to be in operation by the first of next month.

The ore shoot recently encountered in the 320 foot level of the Golconda has proved to be a feeder to the main vein, although it contains (air valued) and is of a fair size. The work of locating the main shoot is being continued. The crusher recently installed in the mine has been started and is giving good service.

Development work has been resumed on the Sundown claim of the H. H. H. company on Gold hill. From the bottom of the shaft at a depth of 30 feet a crosscut was driven west, opening a vein at a distance of 40 feet from the shaft. The vein has been drifted on for a short distance but no pay values have been discovered.

Operations have been commenced at the Brodie mill near Mound City and the work of treating the Rosebud tailings has been commenced. Assays indicate that the 6,000 tons of ore ought to bring at least $8 in gold to the ton. As there are only four men employed at the mine and no expense is incurred in running the machinery the proposition is a profitable one at this rate.

Mills LaBarge & Co. leasing the Happy Year claim of the Central Consolidated company at Windy Point, are engaged in sinking a winze on the vein which is showing up better ore as depth is gained on it.

DANTE AGAIN IN GOOD ORE

A Shoot Has Been Opened in Three Places, and Shipments Are Being Made Every Two Days---Returns Are Encouraging

An important development has taken place on the property of the Dante company in the last two or three weeks which has now been fully proved up and the value of which is testified to by the ore returns just received at the offices of the company.

Stumpf and Mills, leasing on the Close Shave strip of the Dante claim, have opened up a shoot of ore for a distance of 40 feet in the 200 foot level and made several shipments from it. Returns received on the latest consignment showed a lot of twenty tons shipped May 8 was settled for at the rate of $25 ounces in gold to the ton, or a total of $13,[illegible]. A second lot of 15 tons shipped May 11 showed values of $[illegible] in gold to the ton and brought $[illegible]. On May 13 [illegible] tons of two ounce ore was shipped bringing $[illegible]. The lessees have taken out two cars of ore yesterday and are breaking a large amount of it right along. They have started to crosscut for the shoot from the 250 foot level and expect to reach it within 10 days.

South of the Stumpf lease Shelek and associates have opened the same shoot in Dante ground at a depth of 85 feet from the surface and will have a shipment of two cars out by the end of this week.

On the Daly lease 300 feet south of the Sebeck ground the shoot has been opened at a depth of 50 feet.

The ore shoot is an equal one of considerable strength about three feet wide and showing good values. It lies on the west side of the main dike which runs northeast of the claim and in a position [illegible] property where ore has not been before. The development is one of the most important which has occurred on Dante ground in a long time.

RETURNS FROM COLUMBIA ORE

Returns have been received on the shipment of 15 tons made last week from the property of the Cripple Creek Columbia company. The ore went to the sampler there it was [illegible] at the rate of $[illegible] in gold to the ton. The ore came from the winze sunk from the 100 foot level on the middle vein and has taken out in the progress of development work. No especial effort is being made to grade the new ore, all work being concentrated in sinking the winze and the shaft. At the same time there is about 10 tons of ore in the bins taken out from the vein in the shaft and from the winze in the large east vein.

The shaft is going down as rapidly as possible and the 400 foot point will be reached in about two weeks. The vein in the shaft seems to have strengthened up as it got deeper.

The values are holding fairly well.

PROGRESS AGAIN SHIPPING

Shafer and associates leasing on the Cold King claim of the Progress company are now in a good body of shipping ore and report that the indications are more favorable than they have been [illegible] the last [illegible] months. Returns have been received at the office of the company in this city from a consignment of ore marketed recently from the lease. The shipment consisted of about 18 tons, one half of which by carload lots [illegible] in gold to the ton and the other half was settled for at the rate of $[illegible] in gold to the ton. Lessee Shafer is now saving for another shipment and is greatly encouraged over the showing.

The Cold King claim is located on Cold hill in the vicinity of the Lexington and other well known producers and is [illegible] in the Good Will consolidation deals which are now being arranged.

William Weston, manager of the Good Will company, has a lease on a block of the Progress property below the [illegible] foot depth and is operating it through the tunnel with a view to opening the Miss Nellie shoot which is supposed to cross the claim.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

The Good Will tunnel consolidation scheme is progressing fairly well and the Jeffers, Progress, Lexington and Gem companies have signified their intention of joining the tunnel company in effecting a consolidation. Mr. William Weston, who is the engineer of the plan, has been giving considerable of his time to the project and expects that within the above named companies as many [illegible] will be gradually acquired until a strong combination is secured. The Good Will tunnel is now [illegible] feet in, in the district and many sets of joints are already working through it. It is to be pushed in to connect with the main workings of the Lexington.

DR. BAGG FINISHES REPORT ON FORAMINIFERA

Prof. Rufus M. Bagg, Jr., has just finished his report on the microscopic foraminifera of Maryland. It will be published by the Maryland geological survey in a monograph now being prepared on the Eocene formation of that state. In this report Dr. Bagg has described thirty different species of foraminifera, several of which are new to science and are here described for the first time. Some important information has been brought out by this investigation, which shows that the strata of the region was laid down along the Atlantic coast in shallow waters which were subtropical and which therefore contain organisms which in existing oceans are only found in tropical regions. Prof. Bagg is the [illegible] of Belgium, recognized as the foremost student of the foraminifera of North America and has edited several important publications on this group, the most important of which are his report on the cretaceous foraminifera of New Jersey, his bulletin on the foraminifera of the Middle Atlantic States, United States geological survey, No. 88, the Tertiary and Pleistocene foraminifera of the Middle Atlantic States, bulletins of American paleontology, No. 10, Report on the Eocene foraminifera of the Maryland geological survey, reports in separate volumes, in monograph form.

This work which Dr. Bagg has just completed will be fully described and the fossil forms illustrated in the new monograph of Maryland.

HERPICIDE
HAIR LIKE THIS
is readily obtainable through the use of New Discovery Herpicide, the only preparation on the market that reaches and destroys the germs supposed to be responsible for all scalp diseases. It thus makes dandruff and falling hair impossible, and causes a thick, lustrous growth to replace the former thin, brittle hair. The germ theory is now held to be the cause of baldness by leading specialists, as it works like a charm on bald heads, bringing forth a growth of soft, thick hair if the follicles are not dead. Herpicide is certainly a good article and will do the work as advertised, that is why we sell it. Leading lady buyers everywhere are delighted with it. Sold by all druggists, or sent on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle, postpaid, with the following guarantee:
Guarantee: We hereby guarantee Herpicide to be entirely a good article and will do the work as advertised, that is why we sell it. Herpicide has never been sold in any drug store at less than $1.00 per bottle. Money cheerfully refunded if not satisfactory. Yours truly, W. H. Merz, Detroit.

PETITION WAS AGAIN IN CIRCULATION YESTERDAY

The petition to the governing committee of the exchange to abolish the system of future trading was again in circulation yesterday and several more names were secured. The subject was almost the sole topic of conversation on the floor during both calls, although the baseball game asserted its own. The sentiment of the brokers as it was obtained yesterday seems to be largely in favor of abolishing the system. Even those who do not think that it will improve conditions are willing to support the present movement, just to try the experiment. Those who condemn the step, however, are also in evidence, not only those who are affected by the operation of the time privilege but those who are not actively engaged on the floor. The latter say that there are being too many rules adopted and that the vacillating temper of the local brokers is the laughing stock of the older exchanges of the country.

OPENING UP THE VEIN IN THE GOLDEN FLEECE

Drifting has been in progress in the vein opened a few weeks ago in the property of the Golden Fleece company near Lake City in the San Juan ever since it was first cut by the tunnel at a distance of over 2,000 feet from the portal. Up to date 145 feet of drifting has been accomplished all in ore of the finest character. The shoot averages six feet in width and in addition to very good values in gold and silver carries some lead and iron as well. The men who have seen the showing of this new find in the mine are familiar with the mining history of Hinsdale county assert that the Golden Fleece has one of the most promising prospects seen in the district and will make a big mine.

PORTLAND WILL SHIP ONLY OVER SHORT LINE

The Portland company has just signed a contract with the American Smelting and Refining company for the treatment of its ores at or near Pueblo until such time as the Florence mill is completed and the contract stipulates that all the ore be sent over the new short line between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek. To make this possible the company is now erecting new ore bins at the Portland and the short line is building a spur to the shaft from Independence where its tracks have already been extended. The Portland's contribution to the freight business of the road will be a very important one as the mines have been shipping in the neighborhood of 100 tons a month and this will be continued until the mill is completed. After that the mines will only get the high grade Portland ore.

ACTIVE DEVELOPMENT ON THE ST. PATRICK LODE

Active development is being prosecuted on the St. Patrick lode and the Scotch mine seems to be exercising an admirable tendency in giving all the attention to the thorough exploration of the ground instead of to production. In the 400 foot level crosscutting to the east is being done, and from the 500 foot station a crosscut to the west has opened up strong veins carrying ore but no drifting has been done in either of them. The drifting will be carried on to both the east and west lines in the 500 and 600 foot levels before any development of the veins is started. Sinking is in progress in the shaft at the same time and the 700 foot level will be reached in a few days.

This ended the scoring. The Millionaires didn't try very hard to make any more runs and [illegible] St Paul tried hard, but died just as easy. Parker flew out, Blain struck out and Holly threw Huggins out at first.

FOR MINNESOTA

MILLIONAIRES HAVE LEFT FOR THE ENEMY'S COUNTRY.

Tim Donahue Says They Will Come Back to This City in Winning Form

The "Millionaires" left at 8:40 last night on their first trip. They went over the Rock Island and their destination being Minneapolis. Manager Holen's team also traveled back on the same train.

The Millionaires open the season at Minneapolis on Monday. After three games there they go to St Paul for three games. Then they journey to Des Moines and from there to Omaha and from Omaha they come back home to play a series of two games with Denver here on Decoration day. They then have another trip and will not be back again until June 17, when they begin a series of 18 games here.

The men who went on the night were Manager and Right Fielder Holen, Capt. Donahue, Pitchers Whitridge, Hemphill, Hogan and Gaston, Catcher Arthur, First Baseman Law, Second Baseman O'Connell, Third Baseman Schaefer, Shortstop Hollingsworth, Left Fielder Hemphill, Center Fielder McHale. Catcher Donahue and Pitcher Whitridge will be released and will be taken back with the team and will be left back there. Jack Doot, the bad luck mascot of the team, will also go home. Donahue says he expects to strengthen the team as it ever is necessary on the trip. Butler has received orders to join the club at Kansas City, Walsh and Beam will be looked out and the team expects to come back in winning form.

We may not win all the games on the trip, said Tim last night, but the season is long yet and we will win right along in June and July. I know it is hard for the people to see their team lose several games in succession but we have had bad luck in getting our pitchers in good shape. The weather here was too cold to start them out in. We will work our pitchers out in the warm climate of Des Moines and the other places. [illegible] you will see a win after that. We know the weaknesses in our team and we will try to strengthen them. Don't blame the team for poor work simply because the pitchers are in poor shape.

AROUND THE BASES

Schaefer made a hard try for a foul in the fifth inning but failed to get it. He fell to it over it but did his best.

Whitridge showed his good form in quitting the game on Monday. Had he pitched it out with his arm in the cold it was in he would not have been able to hang in for probably a week and the Apostles would have taken yesterday's game. Whitridge has won every game he has pitched through so far and his arm is not in condition either.

Glasscock, who had charge of the Minneapolis Millers, tried to trade two men of his team for Pitcher Gaston. Donahue and Holen won't let him. They have confidence in Gaston and say he will pitch good ball as soon as he strikes warm weather in which to work out his arm. They say they feel as there who believe the same thing.

Gaston was rather weak at the bat yesterday but his throw to home plate from left field was the feature of the game.

Tim made two bad throws to first yesterday but he is excusable because of that broken finger which is just healing and which still bothers him very much.

Four hits and eight strike outs is one of the best records made by any pitcher this season. When Whitridge gets into proper form he will have them all at his mercy.

Kansas City and St. Joe are the teams which join Colorado Springs and Denver to fill the other four cities this time. Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha and Des Moines will be the playing stations. Our team goes to Minneapolis, Denver to St. Paul, Kansas City to Omaha and St. Joe to Des Moines.

If St. Joe keeps beating Des Moines in the next three games as she has beaten her in the last three, Manager Chase will begin to think that Holen will win his bet. Holen bet him that Colorado Springs would beat Des Moines out in the race. It looks as though we could do that with a half try, but the season is young.

Knepper had his reputation as a pitcher hurt by yesterday's game. He never got three hits off him. Colorado Springs lined out a varied assortment, numbering 17, all to [illegible].

DENVER WON A PITCHERS' BATTLE

Special to the Gazette

Denver, May 15.—Taylor's fine work in the box together with two costly errors by the visitors gave Denver the last game of the series with Minneapolis. It was a great game and the five hundred fans who attended were presented with the finest article of ball played this season.

Sweeney was in the box for Minneapolis and had the Denver stick twisters guessing from start to finish. Powers was the only man to find the ball and succeeded in placing it over the fence. Minneapolis fielding was fine and but for the two errors they might have had a repetition of yesterday's performance. Swormstedt was a little wild at the start and hit both Padcliff and Mohler. Hickey hobbled and had scored on Bradley's out to first. In the fourth Bradley sent a hard grounder along the first base line which Tannehill fumbled. Lewee advanced him to second and he went to third on the play. Preston was next man and sent a high fly to center. Lewee came home. It made only two runs but was enough to win. Minneapolis made her one in the fifth. Trashear got one to Lewee and the little short stop threw the ball over Hickey's head. Tannehill struck out but Cockrain was there with the goods and sent a Brashea home on a drive to center. Score:

FIERCE WILLEY

JONES THOUGHT HIM A MEMBER OF THE DALTON GANG

And Took Four Shots at Him Without Effect—David Jones Acquitted

According to David Jones, a colored man who was on trial yesterday in the district court charged with assault with intent to kill, he shot four times at Wiley Morris on March 6 last because he was skeered of Willey. He had heard that Morris was a member of the Dalton gang of outlaws and after the two had a quarrel Jones armed himself. They met in Cucharas street and Jones was so badly frightened he said yesterday that he fired four times at the supposed bad man. None of the shots took effect.

The trial occupied the attention of the court nearly the entire day. The court room was crowded by colored people as the two men are well known here. The jury retired at 6 o'clock.

The jury believed that Morris is a bad man and late last night returned a verdict acquitting Jones.

Charles A. Cross began proceedings in the district court yesterday for a divorce from his wife Anna. They were married at Emporia, Kas., in 1891 and Cross alleges that his spouse has deserted him.

In the county court in the case of the City of Colorado Springs vs. Frank F. Crump an appeal was filed.

Judge Hubbard dismissed the suit of Emmore vs. Sweeney and the plaintiff's cost.

MORE EXHIBITS FOR THE COLUMBIA SCHOOL

Tomorrow evening the Columbia Art exhibit will be opened to the public for the first time. An excellent musical entertainment has been prepared for that time in addition to the works of art which will be on exhibition. Mrs. Fannie Aiken Tucker and Miss Katherine Cordell will sing the high school mandolin club and Mr. W. A. Evans' trio of violinists will render selections. The entertainment will be repeated Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Saturday morning the exhibit will be opened to children only.

A number of new contributors have been added to the list already announced. Mr. Percy Algerman has loaned several works from his collection of paintings which is among the finest in the city. Other contributors are Mr. Henry Russell Wray, Mrs. Foley of the Chicago Art Institute and Mrs. Mary A. Barton who sends the work of John Donahue the London sculptor and J. Ray Robertson of the Chicago Art Institute. In addition to these a large number of pictures which have never been shown in this city will be on exhibition. Among them will be fine copies of a Velasquez, a Titian, a Franz Hals, a Paul Veronese and others. America the Country; Colorado the State

I am an Englishman by birth but an American from choice and I have lived over here so long that I don't believe any one would suspect that I was once as rampant a Britisher as ever could be found anywhere in the kingdom of loyalty.

But the broad a and the drawled r and the occasional hitch could not be eliminated from the sturdy English accent even after years spent in this country. The speaker was William A. Farrington of East Greenwich, R. I., who is in the city on a mining business.

England is a great country, but there are greater and America is the country for me to be continued.

Dying and it is just a big and deep spot. There is not room enough for a good sized man to turn around without stepping on someone's toes.

In the east we are all much interested in Colorado and it has only been of late years that people have gotten over the notion that this is still a pioneer country. Some people in the New England states still believe that it is necessary for one to be well armed just as soon as he crosses the Mississippi and they really have an idea that the cities are populated mainly by cowboys and miners.

Why, they believe that a pick and shovel is sufficient equipment for any miner. They have no idea that an up to date one is all that is progressive in the city of mining machinery is really an example of all that is progressive in mechanical engineering.

The daily papers of Colorado reach my office every day in the year just two days after publication and this has been a cause of wondering surprise to my neighbors. Just two days to travel the continent they say.

By comparing eastern papers I find that the former have far more local news than we do. Our people devote much more space to international news. For instance we have columns in daily about the international yacht races. When the boats are in sight of the water they are more closely watched than a fleet of battleships would be. Every time the boat turns around every time the sails are hauled down the details are minutely described. From a literary standpoint some of the western dailies are every whit as good as the much boasted and over advertised dailies of our large cities.

Denver and Colorado Springs papers circulate among eastern readers far more than one has any idea of. We take them for the mining news and because no one that has ever been out here can ever lose interest in the country even if no financial considerations control them. To me Colorado is the one state in the union. I often travel seven days just for the sake of spending two or three days in this glorious climate.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrington are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Pitts of Massachusetts. They are all at the Alamo.

Likes Boston Except The "Boston Bags"

New York City is the center of all activity in this country—its the hub of everything that is worth considering, said Mr. L. M. Pitts at the Alamo last night.

You pass from a big town in your scale of comparison and next comes Boston. Boston and New York are as wide as the east and west. America yet lives, in my estimation, in a great West.

There is one [illegible] I have against Boston and that is the men are too lady like. They all carry shopping bags—Boston bags. They are called such a reputation have these bags that you can't go into any first class dry goods store anywhere in the west and say, I want a Boston bag, they will give you the critical a little that Boston men expect you to consider the question of the next [illegible].

Lawyers don't seem to take exception to the Boston bags. A lawyer will carry his papers in a bag with him in a dainty little bag embroidered, probably with his monogram. The latter will have the same kind of a bag slung over his arm and his noonday lunch on will probably be packed away in it. Even clergymen of the theater or opera can carry them as they can their opera glasses, smelling salts, etc. They are made of different materials according to the taste of the owner. Ladies have them made of pretty silks to match their gowns.

These bags seem to be a fetish with the people and as I said before it is all that I've got against the town. When I live in Boston you've got to learn to do as you're nobody. I won't carry a Boston bag so there you are.

Mr. Pitts is from Massachusetts and has just recently come to Colorado to spend a part of the summer. Mrs. Pitts accompanies him.

KILLED A SENSATIONAL PREACHER BUT ACQUITTED

Williamson, Va., May 15.—State Senator Stokes, who shot and killed Rev. J. J. Wolfe, a Presbyterian clergyman last November, was tonight acquitted of murder and set free. The shooting was the outcome of Rev. Wolfe's sensational sermon in which Williamson society came under the sharp lash of the preacher's invective. The theory of the prosecution was that Stokes sought the minister in his own house and demanded an apology and provoked a quarrel in which Mr. Wolfe was killed. But the first witness put on the stand killed the theory of that hypothesis. Otis Pelly was within a hundred yards and at the first burst of the pistols rushed to ward the scene of the affray. There he found Stokes although shot twice still standing with smoking revolver in hand and in reply to a question Stokes said:

Wolfe shot me twice and I had to kill him.

At that time Pelly said Mrs. Delaney of Richmond, Va., who was the only eye witness to the fatal shooting corroborated Stokes. Pelly's testimony virtually disposed of the state's case. It was known from affidavits made at the time of the shooting that the evidence of Mrs. Delaney would tend to exculpate Stokes.

Senator Stokes took the stand and explained how Wolfe was killed. There were no other witnesses for the defense.

GATES SAYS STEEL STORY IS A HOT AIR YARN

New York, May 15.—John W. Gates and Mrs. Gates sailed for Southampton today on the steamship St. Louis. Before sailing Mr. Gates took occasion to deny again that he had been a bear on Northern Pacific.

Mr. Gates attention was called to a dispatch from Chicago stating that he was promoting a combination of the anti-steel concerns. It was said that associated with him were John Lambert and Isaac L. Ellwood and that the new company was to be a competitor of J. P. Morgan's big trust.

That steel story is another hot air yarn, said Mr. Gates. You can deny that right off the reel. I know nothing about combination of steels.

John Lambert, an associate of John W. Gates in the American Steel & Wire company, also denies that he and Mr. Gates are trying to effect a combination of Colorado Fuel, Tennessee Coal & Iron and other kindred companies. He said:

The intimation that we seek to fight the United States Steel corporation is manifestly absurd for the reason that we are largely interested in that corporation. The only one of the companies mentioned in the western dispatches in which we are interested is Colorado Fuel & Iron. We are in that company to do business and not to fight U. S. Steel or sell out to it.

AN EXILED FRENCHMAN LOOKING FOR TROUBLE

Paris, May 14.—Another convocation of the French senate as the high court of France is promised by the expected return to this country of the Marquis de Lur Saluces, the well known royalist and former member of chamber of deputies who in January, 1900, at the time of the conspiracy trials was condemned in default of appearance to 10 years banishment for treason. The president of the senate, M. Fallieres, received a letter today in which the marquis says:

At the present moment when the government of the republic is striving desperately to ruin industry and commerce, paralyzing national work, disorganizing the army and destroying religious faith—in a word to utterly destroy the fatherland itself—I intend to propose at other public discussion before the high court on the question of who are the real authors of the conspiracy threatening the existence of France. I hold myself at your disposition.

The letter caused much stir in the lobbies of the senate.

The Marquis de Lur Saluces sought refuge in Belgium where he was closely watched by the police whom he succeeded in eluding and returned to his mansion in Paris a few days ago.

LONDON FIRMS TOTTERED DURING NEW YORK PANIC

London, May 15.—Some dramatic details regarding English action during the panic in American stocks have come into the possession of the representative of the Associated Press. It appears that last Sunday the senior partner of the largest arbitrage concern in London had a meeting at a private house at here Mr. Morgan, Lord Rothschild and others were present. He declared that if the business of Northern Pacific shares was not stopped his firm must announce themselves defaulters. Several were the words out of his mouth before his hearers realized that such a step would mean an immediate loss of 15,000,000 pounds to the London stock exchange.

Lord Rothschild and Mr. Morgan, contrary to all the rules of Capel court, pledged their word that there would be no further buying in of Northern Pacific.

It is generally realized that if this firm had not been able to get its needs met London would have felt the effects for three years and houses whose names are historic would have been compelled to go to the wall, despite the fact that none of the parties in question had taken any serious initiative in the fight between the American people.

At Sunday's meeting when the situation was presented in all its gravity Lord Rothschild said:

London must be saved and when the representatives agreed that the buying in of Northern Pacific must be stopped he remarked: "We have gained the day."

One of the leading London stockbrokers said today to a representative of the Associated Press:

The whole development of the last few days more than shows how much we are in the power of New York.

The Daily Telegraph's financial article this morning says:

If the rival groups arrange their differences the real values of the different American securities [illegible] the same as before the panic occurred, since the prosperous condition on which the recent advances were based still exists.

Stopped?

Well, it has been a good, reliable, timely friend—has earned a rest. Lay it aside. Secure a new one. The world moves. Carry a reliable watch, unless you wish to be behind the times and the time. Watch your time by carrying a time-piece that we can guarantee.

Our recommendation means: A watch that has passed the exacting observatory test before coming to us—a watch that we know, from many years actual handling of fine watches, to be the best of its kind and price—doesn't matter what that price may be. Our three grades are: Good, better, best.
